Baskin, Jackson, Hansbarger & Duffett, P.C.

Baskin, Jackson, Hansbarger & Duffett, P.C., one of Falls Church's oldest law firms, was founded in 1950, by William M. Baskin. His son, William M. Baskin, Jr. and John G. Jackson have been members of the firm for more than 25 years. More recently, William H. Hansbarger and Robert J. Duffett have joined the firm and become partners. Collectively, the four current partners have over 100 years legal experience. With our office conveniently located in the City of Falls Church, we provide legal representation throughout the Northern Virginia area.

Each of the firm's attorneys restricts his practice to certain specific fields for maximum proficiency. Our areas of expertise include all types of personal, business and commercial litigation; estate planning and related tax planning techniques; probate and estate administration; zoning, land use and related real estate matters; commercial and residential landlord representation; lease review and litigation; and domestic relations.

William M. Baskin, Jr., Esq.

Mr. Baskin is a life long resident of Northern Virginia and has been in the private practice of law since 1976. He is a principal of the firm Baskin, Jackson, Hansbarger & Duffett, P.C. and has been a member of this firm or its predecessors since 1976. Mr. Baskin's primary areas of practice include zoning, land use, civil litigation and general commercial issues. Mr. Baskin is licensed to practice in all trial and appellate courts in the Commonwealth of Virginia, as well as the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, and the United States Supreme Court.

John G. Jackson, Esq.

A life long resident of Virginia, John Jackson's practice has focused on estate planning, estate administration, taxation and fiduciary litigation. In addition to estate planning for estates of all sizes, he has handled a broad variety of related matters: IRS audits and appeals, preparation of personal, fiduciary and estate tax returns; will contests, trust reformations, guardianships, partnership accountings, suits for aid and direction, Court ordered gifting programs, and other chancery or fiduciary litigation. In estate administration, Mr. Jackson has served as personal representative or counsel to the fiduciary for many estates in all of the Northern Virginia counties.

Martha J. Mothershead, Esq.

Attorney Martha J. Mothershead has more than twenty-five years of experience representing individuals, families and commercial entities in state and federal courts in Michigan and Virginia. Her experience includes everything from corporate litigation to running a general practice.

Martha is currently of-counsel concentrating in landlord-tenant and real estate law. She also maintains a solo general practice representing small businesses and non-profits, and assisting families with estate planning and elder issues.
